Players code of conduct

We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behaviour in the game. Players tell us they want a referee for every match, yet 7,000 match officials drop out each season because of the abuse and intimidation they receive on and off the pitch. Respect your referee today and you may just get one for every match this season. Play your part and observe The FA's Respect Code of Conduct for players at all times.

On and off the field, I will:

- Adhere to the Laws of The Game
- Display and promote high standards of behaviour
- Promote Fair Play
- Always respect the match officials' decisions
- Never engage in public criticism of the match officials
- Never engage in offensive, insulting or abusive language or behaviour
- Never engage in bullying, intimidation or harassment
- Speak to my team-mates, the opposition and my coach/manager with respect
- Remember we all make mistakes
- Win or lose with dignity. Shake hands with the opposing team and the referee at the end of every game.
- Should train when requested unless you have reasonable excuse.
- If you do not train and you have not notified your coach and you have no reasonable excuse this may exclude you from the next competitive match.

- Must have correct & clean equipment.
- Do not turn up under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Show sportsmanship.
- Encourage your team mates at all times
- Support club events.
- No racial, sexual, or abusive comments to players, coaches, officials & spectators.
- Players to leave any changing club facility tidy.
- No players to enter referee's changing room.
- No player to enter Board room unless invited
- Players under the age of 18 should not drink any Alcohol in and around the clubhouse
- If refreshments are provided at away fixtures you are expected to partake.
- Away from the sports Club Follow the Code of Conduct whilst representing.
- Receive a warning from the coach
- Receive a written warning from the club committee
- Be required to attend an FA education course
- Be dropped or substituted
- Be suspended from training
- Not be selected for the team
- Be required to serve a suspension
- Be fined
- Be required to leave the club.

In addition:

- The FA/County FA could impose a fine and/or suspension on the club.

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any/all of the following actions may be taken by my club, County FA or The FA.

I may:

- Be required to apologise to team-mates, the other team, referee or team manager
